Loss and bereavement

Supporting children and young people affected by separation, loss and bereavement

Date: 25th September, 2010

9.30am – 1.30pm (registration from 9.00am)

Venue: Resource Centre, LVSC, 356 Holloway Road, London N7 6PA

What will I get out of this?

- a deeper understanding of the experience of children affected by separation, loss and bereavement
- the confidence to support children through traumatic experiences
- the understanding and ability to use creative tasks as a way of helping children to open up, identify and work through their feelings

This course is for you if you are a teacher, teaching assistant, learning mentor, SENCO, LAC coordinator, social worker, educational psychologist, educational psychotherapist, counsellor or health professional.

Speakers

Gloria Condon:

is an educational psychotherapist and teacher. She has worked extensively across the primary age range. Currently she teaches mainstream pupils with social, emotional and behavioural difficulties in a key stage 2 nurture group in LB Enfield. As an educational psychotherapist she works for Caspari Foundation supporting adolescents experiencing bereavement and loss.

Wanda Wadsworth:

is a teacher and educational psychotherapist. She has taught in mainstream and special needs schools. She works on several projects at Caspari Foundation, including loss and bereavement and children affected by violence.
