

Start your journey to becoming a fully qualified Educational Psychotherapist.

Are you interested in how emotional needs can block a child or young person's capacity to learn? Do you wonder how to support them?

"Speaking about the learning I had done on the course about Attachment Theory helped me secure the job I have always wanted in post-adoption support services."

"Life-changing training that enlightens and empowers practitioners with psychoanalytic understanding that is firmly grounded in the reality of the challenges we face in meeting the social, emotional and mental health needs in education today. Go if you can!"

www.caspari.org.uk

One Year Certificate in Therapeutic Teaching

£2,800

Applicants

These courses are suitable for teachers, educational psychologists, learning mentors, nurture group practitioners and others working with children. Application is by interview.

Time involved

Thursdays evenings: 6:20pm – 9pm (term time only)

Two Saturdays over the year course

Course Outline

The basis of the work is in psychoanalytic theory and attachment and the application of these ideas in an educational context.

Modules explore: theoretical concepts in educational psychotherapy; attachment theory and the practice of therapeutic teaching; work discussion – where theory and practice meet.

Course Award/Qualification

Certificate in Therapeutic Teaching

30 Credits at FHEQ Level 7

This course can also be converted into the first year of the Advance Diploma in Educational Psychotherapy.

Several full and part time bursaries are available thanks to the generosity of the Arsenal Foundation.

To book your place on the course or for any more information please contact Lynsey Daniels: lynsey@caspari.org.uk

www.caspari.org.uk